

Grand Slam Celebration

Over 330 people made their way into former St. Louis Cardinals' catcher Tom Pagnozzi and his wife Colleen's home in East Fayetteville on Saturday, May 1st. The party and auctions raised over $38,000 for Pagnozzi Charities which helps underprivileged youth play sports in NWA.

Guests enjoyed hors d'oeuvres and drinks while listening to music by Jeff Fox. Casino-style gaming including Blackjack and Roulette also took place under a big tent poolside. The big winner of the evening was Betty Christenson who claimed the grand prize from the gaming and won the trip for 2 to Las Vegas – Sam's Town.

Silent and live auctions were also held. Winners of the Live Auction are as follows: Naturals game in the Owners' Suite at Arvest Ballpark, Jim Wedmer; Panama City Beach Condo stay donated by Around the World Travel, Scott Rouse; a Destin Beach Condo stay donated by Kirk Elsass, Darci Smith; a trip to St. Louis for a Cardinals Home Series, Angela Ryan.
